Let Me Help You With That
Walking down the street, a man passes a house and notices a child trying to reach the doorbell. No matter how much the little guy stretches, he can't make it. The man calls out, "Let me get that for you," and he bounds onto the porch to ring the bell. "Thanks, mister," says the kid. "Now let's run."

- Knock, Knock who's there? Manny? Manny who? Manny are called but few are chosen.
- Knock, Knock Who's there? Me? Me who? Will you remember me in 5 years? Yes, will you remember me in 10 years? Yes- Knock, Knock who's there ? See you forgot me already.

Vengeance is Mine," Thus Sayeth the Little Guy

Three burly fellows on huge motorcycles pulled up to a highway cafe where a truck driver, just a little guy, was perched on a stool quietly eating his lunch. As the three fellows came in, they spotted him, grabbed his food away from him and laughed in his face. The truck driver said nothing. He got up, paid for his food and walked out. One of the three cyclists, unhappy that they hadn't succeeded in provoking the little [guy] into a fight commented to the waitress: "Boy, he sure wasn't much of a man, was he?" The waitress replied, "Well, I guess not." Then, looking out the window, she added, "I guess he's not much of a truck driver, either. He just ran over three motorcycles."

The Moral of the story: Be kind to everyone because you never know who you are dealing with. Remember, the Bible says we may entertain an Angel without knowing it.
